Her Excellency the Honourable Linda Dessau AM

'Governor's Address'

On 1 July 2015, the Honourable Linda Dessau AM was sworn in as Victoria's 29th Governor, the first female in the role. In her early years as a lawyer, the Governor practised in commercial litigation and family law, later specialising in family law. In 1982 she married fellow Victorian barrister, Anthony Howard, and together they took up roles as Crown Counsel, and later Senior Crown Counsel in the Hong Kong Attorney-General's chambers, where they prosecuted criminal trials.

Soon after returning to Australia in 1985, the Governor was appointed a part-time member of the Small Claims and Residential Tenancies Tribunals. She served in the Children's Court, Coroners Court and Melbourne Magistrates' Court where she ultimately headed the Civil division and later the Committal Court. In June 1995, the Governor was appointed a Judge of the Family Court of Australia, where she served for 18 years until July 2013.

Outside the law, the Governor was engaged in a broad range of community organisations, including founding Chair of the Essendon Football Club Women's Network, Vice-President of Wesley College Council, a Board member of Turning Point Drug and Alcohol Centre, member of the Royal Children's Hospital Ethics Committee and the La Trobe University Professional Consultative Council, and a Patron of the Epilepsy Foundation and One Umbrella (food recycling charity).

Immediately before her appointment as Governor, she was President of the Melbourne Festival, Chair of the Winston Churchill Memorial Trust Victorian Regional Committee and a National Board Member of the Trust, a Commissioner of the Australian Football League, a Trustee of the National Gallery of Victoria, a Board member and former Chair of AFL Sportsready and Artsready, a Board member of the Unicorn Foundation, and a Patron of Sports Connect. In 2010 the Governor was made a Member of the Order of Australia for services to family law, and the community.

Members may bring guests who need not be legal or medical practitioners.
